

Helping the Hungry and Unemployed during the Holidays

Local businesses Sterling Cleaning Services, Inc. and a local Ram's Horn Restaurant in Rochester Hills are giving back to the community this Thanksgiving. The companies are offering free Thanksgiving meals to citizens in the metro-Detroit area who are in need. This charity event will be at the Ram's Horn Restaurant on Rochester Road and Hamlin Road ONLY on Monday November 23, 2009 from 4 PM to 9 PM.

Troy, MI November 9, 2009 – Local business Sterling Cleaning Services, Inc. is giving back to the community this Thanksgiving when they host a five hour free dinner at a local Ram's Horn Restaurant in Rochester Hills on Rochester Road and Hamlin Road for those who are in need in the area on Monday November 23rd.

Local business Sterling Cleaning Services, Inc. has been cleaning Ram's Horn Restaurant on Rochester Road and Hamlin Road for several years. The owners of Sterling Cleaning Services, Inc. Dan Fitzgerald and Tom Bruce came up with the idea in cooperation with Greg Thomas proprietor of Ram's Horn Restaurant on Rochester Road and Hamlin Road to give back to community during Thanksgiving this year. They decided to host a five hour long meal at Ram's Horn where those in need would be able to come and enjoy an early Thanksgiving celebration.

The meal will be hosted at Ram's Horn Restaurant in Rochester Hills located on Rochester Road and Hamlin Road ONLY from 4 PM to 9 PM Monday November 23, 2009. Local charities donated items such as hats, gloves, mittens, and hygiene products that patrons can have when they leave.

"The whole idea is to give back to those who have been through rough times this year" Dan Fitzgerald stated, "We just wanted to try to make a difference this holiday season."

Many of the employees of Sterling Cleaning Services, Inc. have offered their time and will be volunteering during the meal. "We are excited about helping those around us who might not be as fortunate as us this holiday season." Shannon Green, Office Manager of Sterling said when asked about volunteering for the event.
