They Are Ringing The Gong @ NEW IMAGE BUILDING SERVICES

John Ezzo Founder & CEO of Mt. Clemens, MI based NEW IMAGE BUILDING SERVICES, INC. established a tradition at his company that has endured for more than two decades.

According to Ezzo, "the ceremonial ringing of the gong is emblematic of new business acquisition and revenue growth at our company. Ezzo, went on to say that "the gong has been ringing loudly and often." At Ezzo's NEW IMAGE PROTECTIVE SERVICES (NPS) division, the gong rang for the partner acquisition of one of the most coveted security and protection accounts in Michigan.....The Townsend Hotel & Corner Bar. Ezzo, credits the acquisition of the Townsend Hotel & Corner Bar to the reputation of his NPS unit and the NPS value proposition "Experience You Can Trust, Protection You Can Depend On!"

Ezzo is also ringing the gong at yet another of his company's Strategic Business Units, Facility Repair Services (FRS), a business unit that specializes in providing certified technicians for commercial, industrial and residential quality repair work. The work is guaranteed and FRS performs assignments on a national basis with no trip charges and no minimum charges. Ezzo is pleased to announce that FRS has signed Preventive Maintenance Contracts with Joe's Crabshack of Ann Arbor, Ram's Horn Restaurants of Michigan, and Nino Salvaggio. Ezzo says, "The gong ringing has been motivating and we are confident it will continue throughout 2010."
