BOMA BOARD - 2

“The dedication of BOMA’s Board has always been a strength of the association,” said Janet Langlois-Resto, Executive Director, BOMA of Metro Detroit, “and we’re thrilled to have Mike Lauhoff on board to help identify and advocate for key issues affecting commercial real estate in the Metro Detroit area and nationally.”

Founded in 1908, BOMA of Metropolitan Detroit is a professional trade association whose nearly 400 members either own or manage commercial real estate, or provide goods and services to the industry. As part of BOMA International, which represents over 9 billion square feet of commercial properties and facilities in North America and serves 19,000+ commercial real estate professionals, BOMA of Metro Detroit provides commercial real estate professionals with the opportunity to work together for professional growth, advocacy rights, corporate profit, and the benefit of the nine Southeastern Michigan communities it serves.
