

Professional Profile

Richard C. Wieland, MBA, BSE, BGS

Education

- MBA, Finance and Accounting, The University of Michigan
- BSE, Industrial and Operational Engineering (cum laude)
The University of Michigan
- BGS, Mathematics, Chemistry and Biology (with distinction)
The University of Michigan

Teaching Experience

- Instructor, Building Owners and Managers Association
- Visiting Lecturer, Eastern Michigan University
- Adjunct Professor, Wayne State University

Career Summary

In 2010 Mr. Wieland took a position with the Department of Defense responsible for programming of probabilistic cost models for very large scale government programs from conception, development, construction, deployment and maintenance investment phases covering time frames of 20 to 30 years. Richard is a BOMI instructor and teaches RPA and FMA classes throughout the country utilizing the accelerated and on-line formats.

Mr. Wieland over his 40 years of experience has held positions at General Motors, Ford, Chrysler and Federal-Mogul along with being the Senior Operations Manager for two manufacturing companies. Richard's personnel real estate investing experience includes the creation, funding and management of a residential real estate LLC.

Professional Certifications

- Business – Cost Estimating – Department of Defense Level 3 Certified
- Six Sigma Green Belt Certified
- Dale Carnegie Graduate

Contact:

Richard C. Wieland, rcwieland@yahoo.com

Cell 734-355-4988